CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE KS JHAVERIDate : 29/11/2007*ORAL JUDGMENT

1. This appeal is directed against the judgment and order dated 20.04.1993 passed by the learned

Learned Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Mansa in Criminal Case No.676/1988 whereby, the complaint was dismissed and the respondents-accused was acquitted of the charges levelled against them.

2. The brief facts of the prosecution case are as under;

2.1 On 29.11.1988 at about 9 o'clock in the morning, the complainant viz., Kiritkumar scolded the respondents-accused as they teased his sister and, hence, and, the respondents-accused got excited and started abusing the complainant and, thereafter, started beating him by giving kick and fist blow and also threatened him to kill. Accordingly, offence came to be registered as Mansa Police Station I-C.R.No.161/1988 for the offence under Sections 323, 325, 504, 506(2) and 114 of the Indian Penal Code.

2.2 On the basis of complaint, the investigation was embarked upon. The Investigating Officer drew the scene of offence panchnama, recorded the statements of various witnesses, arrested the accused persons and collected ample evidence against the respondents-accused. On conclusion of the investigation, chargesheet was filed against the respondents-accused before the Competent Court.

2.3 As the accused denied the charges, the matter proceeded further. The Learned Magistrate has examined as many as 8 witnesses viz., P.W.No.1 viz., Kiritkumar Chhotalal at Exh.34, P.W.No.2 viz., Pankajkumar Kalidas at Exh.36, P.W.No.3 viz., Naththubhai Kalidas at Exh.38, P.W.No.4 viz., Divaliben Chhotalal Parmar at Exh.43, P.W.No.5 viz., Kalidas Somabhai Dhobi at Exh.46, P.W.No.6 viz., Pushpaben Kantilal at Exh.53, P.W.No.7 viz., Dhiruji Varvaji at Exh.58 and P.W.No.8 viz., Ghanshyamsinh Abhesinh Dabhi at Exh.59 also placed reliance upon several documentary evidence.

2.4 At the end of trial, the learned Magistrate acquitted the respondents-accused of the charges levelled against them. Hence, this appeal.

3. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor, Ms.Panchal for the appellant has contended that the trial Court has committed an error in not believing the prosecution witnesses and has wrongly acquitted the accused of the charges levelled against him. She has also contended that the trial court ought to have believed the version of the prosecution witnesses who were present at the relevant point of time.

4. Heard learned counsel for the respective parties and perused the entire documents on record. The principles which would govern and regulate the hearing of appeal by this Court against an order of acquittal passed by the trial Court have been very succinctly explained by the Apex Court in a catena of decisions. This Court has the power to re-consider the whole issue involved in the appeal, re-appraise the evidence and come to its own conclusion and findings in place of the findings recorded by the trial Court, if the said findings are against the weight of the evidence on record or, in other words, perverse.

5. In a recent decision of the Apex Court in the case of State of Goa v. Sanjay Thakran & anr. reported in (2007) 3 S.C.C. 755, the Court has reiterated the powers of this Court in such cases. In Para-16 of the said decision, the Court has observed as under ;

"16. From the aforesaid decisions, it is apparent that while exercising the powers in appeal against the order of acquittal the Court of appeal would not ordinarily interfere with the order of acquittal unless the approach of the lower Court is vitiated by some manifest illegality and the conclusion arrived at would not be arrived at by any reasonable person and, therefore, the decision is to be characterized as perverse. Merely because two views are possible, the Court of appeal would not take the view which would upset the judgment delivered by the Court below. However, the appellate Court has a power to review the evidence if it is of the view that the conclusion arrived at by the Court below is perverse and the Court has committed a manifest error of law and ignored the material evidence on record. A duty is cast upon the appellate Court, in such circumstances, to re-appreciate the evidence to arrive to a just decision on the basis of material placed on record to find out whether any of the accused is connected with the commission of the crime he is charged with".

[Emphasis supplied]

6. Similar principle has been reiterated by the Hon'ble Apex Court in two recent decisions in the cases of State of Uttar Pradesh v. Ram Veer Singh & ors. reported in 2007 A.I.R. S.C.W. 5553 and in Girja Prasad (Dead) by L.Rs. v. State of M.P. reported in 2007 A.I.R. S.C.W. 5589. Thus, the powers which this Court may exercise against an order of acquittal are well settled.
7. In the present case, the trial Court has considered the evidence in details and the reasons for acquittal are assigned in impugned judgment. The trial court has observed that the Panch Witness viz., Naththubhai Kalidas, Exh.38, in whose presence, the recovery panchnama was prepared, Exh.39, has not supported the recovery panchnama. Thus, the prosecution has failed to prove recovery panchnama. The trail Court has also come to a conclusion that Divaliben and Pushpaen are the interested witnesses. Over and above, the prosecution has failed to prove the injuries received by the complainant. Taking the overall view of evidence, oral as well as documentary, the trial Court has acquitted the respondents.

8. In above view of the matter, I am of the opinion that the trial Court was completely justified in acquitting the respondents of the charges levelled against him. In my view, the findings recorded by the trial Court are absolutely just and proper and in recording the said findings, no illegality or infirmity has been committed by it. I am in complete agreement with the findings, ultimate conclusion and the resultant order of acquittal recorded by the trial Court and, hence, find no reasons to interfere with the same.
9. It is also required to be noted that in the case of State of Maharashtra V/s. M/s Gopalprasad Govindprasad Agarwal, reported in AIR 1999 SC 1507, having regard to the fact that the offences were committed almost 20 years ago, the Apex Court refrained from setting aside the acquittal order. In the present case the incident is of 29th November, 1988 and almost 20 years have elapsed. Therefore, even on this ground, I am of the view that it is not desirable to interfere with the findings of the trial court.

10. I am not discussing the evidence of each witness/s in detail in view of the observations made by the Apex Court in the case of State of Karnataka Vs. Hemareddy reported in A.I.R. 1981 S.C. 1417 wherein it is held as under:

"... This court has observed in Girija Nandini Devi V. Bigendra Nandini Chaudhary (1967)1 SCR 93: (AIR 1967 SC 1124) that it is not the duty of the appellate court when it agrees with the view of the trial court on the evidence to repeat the narration of the evidence or to reiterate the reasons given by the trial court expression of general agreement with the reasons given by the Court the decision of which is under appeal, will ordinarily suffice."

11. In the result, the appeal is dismissed.
